Mission Statement

CRYSTALS HEART HEALING HOUSE is a 501C3 non-profit organization that provides support and encouragement for parents with a safe, private place to heal. Sharing our stories with others who have experienced the loss of a child to or because of addiction. We gather parents together for love and support. Navigating through the grief journey learning how to be ok, to live, love and even laugh again. We focus on honoring the lives of our children through our love and memories, building friendships and a support system with others who understand. We work together to educate others on the stigma of addiction, teaching others how prevalent the disease is and how no one is exempt from falling captive to it. We provide outlets for the public to know the truths about drugs and addiction and promote healthy lifestyles and healing. You are not alone. Together we heal.

PLEASE READ ALL OF THIS INFORMATION IN THIS PACKET AS IT SHOULD ANSWER MANY QUESTIONS YOU MAY HAVE, THANK YOU

Hello Angel parents,
Greetings with big hugs from us to you. We are so deeply sorry for your loss. There is NO greater loss one can endure than the loss of a child. We at Crystal's Heart Healing House are here to help you in your healing process. This is for angel parents and family members who have lost a child from addiction, substance abuse, alcoholism or death due to addiction.

Welcome to an incredibly special RETREAT for us Angel parents. A safe place where we can all meet face to face, share our Angels, ourselves and have real heart to heart talks and real heart to heart hugs.

The retreat has proven to be very healing, energetic, fun and yes emotional. It is always very emotional working through grief but it also releases some of the pain, bringing in a newer, lighter perspective, even if only a little. Every little bit helps us grow in our grief. It's extremely healthy for us and our broken hearts, to be with other Angel parents and loved one's face to face. Spending five days getting to know each other and our beautiful angels is a much-needed observation. Although different, we are one in the same. We learn here, take care of ourselves, rest and breathe. There is no judgement, and we are not alone in this journey.

Many past guests have said, "It couldn't have been any better", "it was perfect" and they "got more out of it than they expected", some even saying, "it was life changing". Everyone left feeling lighter, like the world had been lifted from their shoulders some, with new perspectives, tools, special bonds and friendships. Feel free to read the testimonies on our website: crystalsheart.org
We have therapeutic groups, open discussion and topic groups. We have healing therapy art and music activities along with some much-needed fun and relaxation. The past retreats have been beautiful experiences and so very heartwarming and special. Many have wanted to come back 2 and 3 times. I know you will also love this retreat as the setting alone is spiritual and soothing for the soul. It's an incredibly beautiful sanctuary, surrounded by nature and tranquility, its truly God's country, and God is with us! The retreat is light and flexible. It has been mostly Mom's, but it is for all parents...Dad's too. Biological parents, adopted and ones who raised and loved the Angel. I feel Dad's get lost and forgotten, and they need healing too. Most Dad's do not talk about their pain or share their feelings, as we do. We have recently incorporated "family members" over the age of 21, siblings and grandparents.

I want this to be a memorable time for all involved, we have been through so much pain and heartache, now it's time we do something special and good for ourselves. Something that's rewarding, healing and life changing. I want all of us to gain lifetime friends, support, and encouragement from others who know exactly how we feel. I'm thankful for all of the awesome feedback we have gotten from past guests, but it is a "team" of starving Moms, hungry for love, compassion and understanding, which has made this work. It wouldn't have been so great without each of you! We are connected by the heart, and I believe we really need each other. We never would have chosen to be in this group, but here we are, and we feel the love from others, just like us, desperate for love, compassion, support and understanding.

I'm not an alcoholic or addict but I seem to fall in love with them LOL which has brought me into the rooms of AA, NA and with over 30 years of Al-Anon. Al-Anon has helped many people, including me. It's a program I believe in, especially with God in the mix. I know it's not for everyone and that's okay. There are many great people in the program with double digit years of recovery living great or even exceptional lives today. At the retreat I share a few valid and helpful things Al-Anon has taught me. Something else they have taught me is to take what you like and leave the rest. I will go with that and hope you will too. For those who don't know, Al-Anon is not about the addict or "saving" the addict, it is about us helping and taking care of ourselves. Even after loss and grief, Al-Anon does offer great tools and suggestions for self-care, love, hope, and acceptance.

This retreat is a healing place where people share, and it goes where it goes, I believe things go and flow the way they are supposed to. Each retreat has its own individual flare. We all share our lives intimately with each other. We share extremely challenging times, abuse of all types, feelings, guilt, fears and even secrets, along with grief and deep love. We must all feel SAFE and since we open our hearts and confide in each other we seriously ask you to keep the stories and info of others confidential.

That huge hole, that's always there, will begin to shrink and the scar left behind from loss will always be a reminder of our deep love. This retreat works because we all know that same feeling of child loss. There is no other loss as debilitating and painful and here we can relate those feelings with someone else personally who knows the exact depth of our pain. We share our Angels, tell our stories as we honor and remember them and who they were. Addiction DOES NOT define our loved ones! Sharing and talking, being empathetic, hugging one another tight with validation and compassion is what we do. We laugh, joke, sing, play games, shop, and have an enjoyable time too, because we deserve to have fun, to live, love and laugh, even in our grief. You are allowed to enjoy your life; life is more bearable with friends who understand. We genuinely love and support one another. These Georgia retreats are held in May and every October, usually the 2nd or 3rd weeks in the month. May is a nice warm month and October's cool crisp air, and the change of season is always beautiful.

I will be creating a group chat on Messenger with all the parents/guests that will be attending the retreat a minimum of two months before the retreat, so you all can get to know one another and your Angels, upon meeting in person. Another thing Al-Anon taught me. LOL... "You may not like all of us, but you will love us in a very special way, the same way we already love you" ... you see, it's a heart thing, we are all connected, and I believe our angels are too. I pray that you get everything you expect and more out of this beautiful experience. Thank you for joining our family, we are excited to meet you personally and at the same time we are so sorry you are here. Sending love and big hugs to you all...and hope to see you at one of our up-and-coming retreats.

With Love, Noreen & Crystal

Crystal's Heart Healing House (CHHH) was built over 20 years ago. The house is a private family home tucked away in the North Georgia Mountains, where you will find yourself surrounded by nature at its best. I have decided to do the Retreat here in honor of my daughter Crystal and other parents like me. We all need a safe place like this to share for personal growth and healing.

With over 7300 sq. ft. and several acres to explore, this is where I escaped, in private after Crystal's Celebration for life. This is the very place my Crystal left that snow heart in the tree! That heart is for REAL! The heart gave me a sense of peace and love, beyond my own understanding, and was a true miracle to me. If you don't know the story of the snow heart, hence, the name Crystal's Heart Healing house please read "Our History" on the website: crystalsheart.org. At every retreat all the parents have gotten the same feeling, that our Angels are with us. The presence of our Angels is not one you could ever describe but has been felt by every parent that has walked through the doors to Crystal's Heart Healing House Retreat.

The instant you walk in the house it brings a comfortable feeling, as if you just got home. There is this charm about the place, and it is decorated with lots of different decor and if you're anything like my mother, who is a "collector" of things, you will find many pieces around the house that are beautiful and interesting to look at. I just ask that you respect our home as you would your own, maybe even better.

My desire is that it will become a permanent place for us Angel parents to go to while escaping life on life's terms for Five days. Here is where you will find "like-hearted" people, who get each other. All together for the same purpose... learning how to navigate this "new" life, sharing with other parents who are compassionate and understanding. You are in for a treat, once you arrive at the house, the next five days will be filled with group activities, meals, snacks and beverages along with lodging at an intimate private home which is all included in the Guest Fee. Oh yes, and we can't forget all the free gifts and the impressive raffles. We encourage you to donate a basket or gift for the raffle if you can.

Crystal's Heart

This is that very heart Crystal left in the tree for her mom to see. What a Perfect Snow Heart!

If you have not done so already go on the website www.CrystalsHeart.org

You will find testimonials from past retreats and Crystal's Story!

It's a perfect setting to be able to just enjoy the scenery and talk about our angels.

Rooms of the House

Downstairs Room. Rooms #1 and #2 are downstairs. When you go down the stairs you walk into the family room. On each side of the family room, you will find two bedrooms with walk-in closets and a bathroom. There is also a full use-able kitchen as well and a family room.

Room #1: is a beautiful, exceptionally large and spacious room with sitting area, fireplace, private bathroom, shower, walk-in closet and T.V. It has a King size bed and would be best suited for a husband and wife. If there is no husband-and-wife couple, then two ladies would share the room. This room opens to a large patio overlooking the property.

Room #2: The Pink Room also a very beautiful, spacious room with two twin beds. This room must be shared by two ladies. It also has a large sitting area, full private bathroom, walk-in closet and T.V. in the room. It also opens up to a large patio overlooking nature.

Upstairs you have the Game Room and Room #3. (Room #5 is also upstairs as well but is not accessible from the Game Room or Room#3.)

Room #3: The Green Room is upstairs, in the area of the "game room." It is a large room with twin beds, 2 ladies makeup vanities. Full bathroom with shower and tub. It also has a small sitting area in the room and would be suitable for two single ladies.

Room #4: is also upstairs, but on the other side of the house. It is also a large room with a King size bed. Sitting room, full bathroom and walk in closet. This room would be perfect for a husband-and-wife couple (or two ladies to share). It also has a T.V. in the room. This room by far has the best view of the front and back of the home.

The Game room has a pool table, and a ping pong table topper. Two dart boards, a large poker card table which can be used for anything.

There's a Chess set, (the pieces are knee high) which gives a whole new meaning to chess. There is a telescope pointed at the stars. There is also a microwave in the same area for your convenience. The Baby Grand Piano in the game room is waiting for you to play. Along with the piano we have a guitar and other instruments for all to play. If you have and want to bring your own instrument, bring it, we all know a little music therapy does the soul a lot of good. We welcome any musical talent! We believe music and art therapy are essential in healing wounds of the heart. Everything you need is here! The game room has two deep and comfortable queen size futons. (Those occupying the futons-usually the scholarship recipients) will share the bathroom with Room #3)

Main Level Rooms: On this Level you will find it is surrounded by a wraparound porch and here is where you find the Master Bedroom, Bedroom#5. Main Kitchen, Dining Room, Great Family Room, Laundry room and office. Bedroom #5 is where Noreen and any CHHH administrators stay.

*All rooms have large patio access, except Room #4, but again, that is the most private room with the best view. No matter what room you are sleeping in, you will find you have everything you need to have a nice, quality and relaxed stay.

There is no smoking allowed in the house. Smoking is allowed outside of the house only.

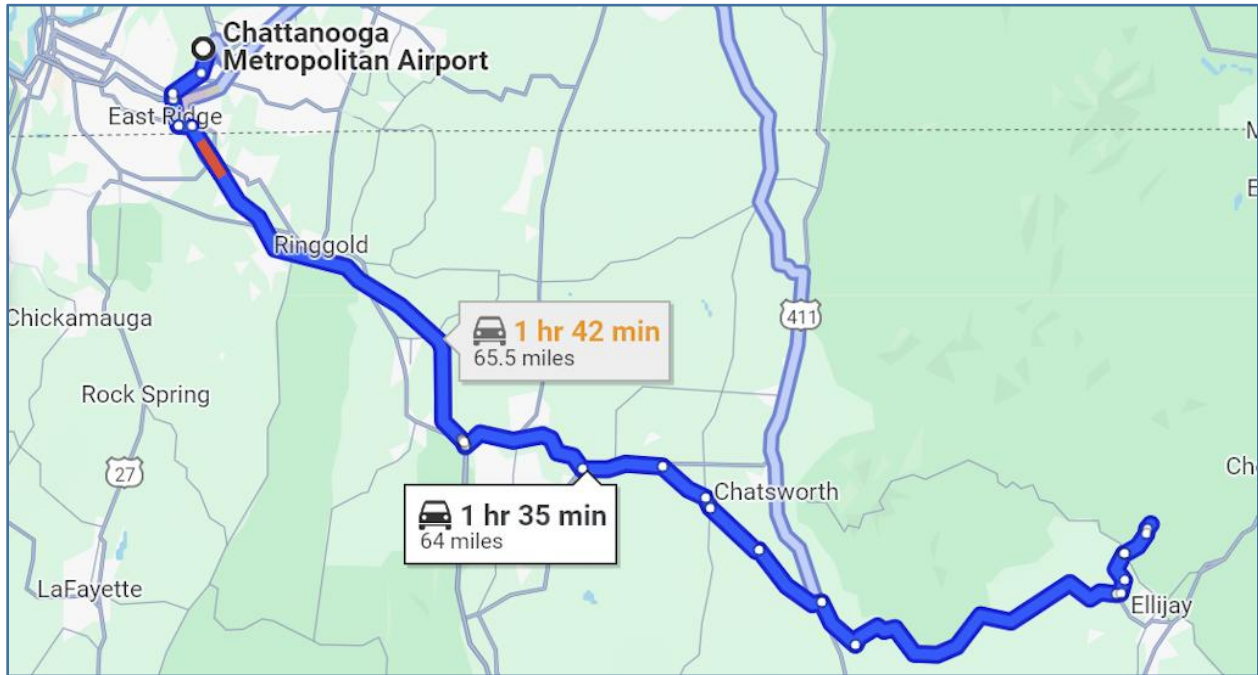

HOW YOUR TRAVELING

You are responsible for any and all traveling expenses as well as booking them. The Retreat is Located in Ellijay, GA. ARRIVAL AND SCHEDULE

The first day of the Retreat is always on a Wednesday. CHECK IN IS FROM 9AM TO 2PM. IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU ARE HERE BY 2PM. This gives you time to get settled in, check out the house and all it has to offer, along with being ready for the first group that starts at 3pm sharp. If that timing is difficult for you, we can arrange for you to arrive a day early, free of charge, if necessary. Our First Group starts at 3pm – Getting to Know our Angels. This is really important that you are here on time and ready for the group as this is the main introduction and that sets the whole retreat on track.

There is a basic, flexible schedule to the retreat. Please don't be fearful or intimidated by this. It's necessary to have some structure. I have put a lot of time and planning into this. I will send the full schedule after the paperwork and payments are made and the rooms are chosen. It is very laid back, casual and organized time and there is no stress here at all! There is a lot of free time, and everything is flexible.

Our groups are led by experienced leaders, professional therapists, life coaches or parents with grief or group experience. However, no one is leading groups on a professional level at the retreat. They are leading as volunteers using their experience, skills and education to guide and that's all. It's angel parents helping angel parents. We leave our titles, prestige, egos and need for gold stars at home.

Sometimes people can cause drama and we prefer you leave that at home too. This is not the place for drama of any kind. We are family here...actually better than that, a new family of choice, together by chance. We are sharing ourselves, our angels, our experience, strength and hope, having fun and building bonds. This structure is to organize our time, have a guide and moderator, and to lead groups. No one is above anyone here, including me. You are guests in my home, and we are all equal. We all know why we are here and not one of us would choose to be here. We are people, humans, with a sad human condition, which is not our fault and one which we have no control over.

We're all on the same boat but maybe on different decks as far as grief and healing goes but nevertheless, we are all here for the same reason and that's to love and support one another, and YES, TO HAVE SOME FUN TOO, because we do deserve it and that's OKAY! Life goes on and so must we, and it's ok to enjoy our life amongst our grief.

As for fun, there's lots to do here, it's a mellow, quiet and beautiful place away from city life. Its nature at its best, in the woods on a mountain on a lake and creek and it's absolutely beautiful! There's still a lot going on inside and outside the home. I have already described the game room. There are also the outside decks and patios and places where one can sit and meditate or where two or more can sit and share and so on. There is a fire pit out back with beautiful Adirondack chairs circling it. There's a picnic bench and a half a dozen rocking chairs on the wrap around porch and other areas to hang out and do things with a group or one on one.

There are swings, rocking chairs, surrounded by birds of all types, squirrels, deer, butterflies and hummingbirds. Again nature at its best! It is very peaceful and a lot of activities are going on which I love, and you will too. Fall is exceptionally beautiful here. Saturday is a busy day and night filled with activities.

We will spend 3 hours in the adorable quaint town of Ellijay, leaving soon after breakfast. Lots of antique stores, novelty shops, restaurants, cafés, really cool stores and even live music. If you are a shopper, come prepared, there are so many great stores downtown. We will end Saturday night with the always fun raffles. We ask if you can donate a basket for the raffles, which would be great. Even re-gifting is good. All raffle monies go to supporting a mom at the retreat, who otherwise would not be able to afford to go. Your contribution is greatly appreciated. Sunday morning after breakfast, we will have our closing group which takes about an hour and a half. We write in each other's journals and share our experiences.

The retreat will end at approximately 12-noon Sunday. PLEASE plan on staying here at least until 12 noon.

Flexible and Full Schedule

So much to do, so we have a schedule but do not stick to it word for word.

Groups, projects, candle lighting Ceremony, and a trip to shop in downtown Ellijay to name a few.

Parents leading Parents

We leave our titles, prestige, egos and need for gold stars at home.

The Guest Fee

HOW MUCH FOR THIS ALL-INCLUSIVE HEALING RETREAT?

$800 Single

$1400 Married Couple

How to Pay

An invoice is sent via email or USPS. Please use the link in the invoice to make payment. Credit card payments will incur a 3.5% convenience fee; payments must be paid in full 8 weeks before the retreat date.

Scholarships and Sponsors

Sponsors such as AMVET, Fundly and others do offer sponsoring of up to $700 for some attendees. A $100 payment is required for craft and activity supplies.

The guest fee for the retreat is $800 per person. This is for five days of private, secluded, spiritual and emotional support with other Angel Parents. This all inclusive of food, beverages, lodging and amenities, free gifts, crafts and all materials for classes and activities. Sometimes, guest speaker or class. All scholarship recipients will be responsible for a one-time fee of $100.00 for all crafts and activity supplies. Everything is at one location, making it extremely easy, convenient and affordable for all! To reserve your spot, you are required to pay the non-refundable administration fee of $100.00.

There are 2 ways an angel Mom or guest can save money coming to the retreat.

First is pairing up: If a couple, husband and wife, or partners come together their price together is $1400.00, saving each of them $100.00. We want Dads to be a part of the healing process as well. The same if a mom is coming and she has a friend who wants to come, who is also an angel Mom or family relative it would be the same as if it was a couple. Again saving $100 making their fee $700.00 each.

Second is through Scholarships or Funding: For each retreat we have a limited amount of funding available to assist Moms/guests who otherwise may not be able to afford to come. Please reach out to us if this is your situation. We don't want this to detour you away from coming!

Scholarships are limited. AMVETS and American Legion are generous sponsors of CHHH and will sponsor 1 guest per retreat. The Angel or one of the parents or grandparents must have served in any of the U.S. military with an honorable discharge to qualify.

Cancellation Policy

NOTE: We do have an administration fee of $100.00 which will be deducted from all cancellations. The non-refundable deposit is intended to hold your reservation. If you cancel your participation in a retreat for any reason, the cancellation policy below will apply with no exceptions. We understand life happens and we wish we could compensate people for unforeseen circumstances (injury, family emergency, or a "forgotten affair or event") however we have cost already incurred upon registration for food, activities, supplies, etc. We have designed our cancellation policy to be as compassionate as possible.

Cancellation refund amounts before the retreat are as follows:

Canceling before 10 weeks, you will receive a 100% refund less the administration fee of $100.00

Canceling between 8-10 weeks you will receive a 50% refund minus administrative fee of $100.00.

Transfers: You may transfer or sell your registration to another person. However, if selling, you may not charge more than what you paid, and they would attend in your place. This is strictly between you and that parent, and you need to immediately notify us of the transfer with their information.

There are no refunds or credits 8 weeks prior to the start of the retreat. To reduce your loss, selling your reservation is recommended. Again you must arrange the sale or transfer of your reservation and immediately notify us of the transfer with their information.

WHAT NEEDS TO BE TURNED IN and WHAT IS NEXT

- Space is limited, confirm as soon as possible
- Secure your reservation with at least half payment
- Once the retreat group is full, we will have a messenger group chat for all attendees 8 weeks prior to the retreat date

There are a few things I need from you if you want to attend. I need you to confirm with me you are coming ASAP, as it will help my planning the sooner, I know. We need your donation for the stay of $800 or $1400 per "couple" to hold the spot. Payment needs to be paid in full by 8 weeks prior to the retreat.

Keep in mind, first come first served. If you wait and it sells out you will be put on the next May or October list, as we can only accommodate 10 guests per retreat. You must sign this release of liability form on the application stating you will sign The Release of Liability upon arrival in person, or you will not be allowed on the property, or in the home, even if you are paid in full. In this case you will lose your money. This is a must for you to be at our home/retreat, period. Upon arrival, you will be asked to sign a disclaimer and a release of liability form, protecting us from any and all liability due to any possible injuries while on the property or in the home. If you go out in the woods or down flights of stairs, this is a chance you take as any guest in our home. The decisions you make for yourself are yours. We take NO responsibility for any accidents or injuries during your stay.

Two months before the retreat, after payments are paid in full, we will have a group chat on messenger, talking about the retreat, sharing about ourselves and each other and our excitement. I suggest you all "friend" one another. We will learn about each other and our angels on Facebook by our profiles. We will feel as if we know each other before we even meet, it's awesome and gets extremely exciting.

Before the retreat, on messenger, we also share about flight reservations, rental cars and more. We share things about us and our angels and some funny stuff, and the days before we feel like anxious, excited children. It is a lot of fun and we really connect, like family and still are today! Everything we share is personal. We ask what you hear, here stays here. We want to protect our guests and for all to feel safe with their shares and personal information.

There will be several moms here that have a faith they believe in, and share their personal thoughts, and beliefs with us. Several of us share how our faith helps us cope. Moms share their experience, strength and hope. Anyone believing in any faith, or none at all, are welcome at this retreat. Everyone should feel free to share anything they believe or don't. This is a spiritual and loving place, all people from all backgrounds and all beliefs are welcome with open arms, there is NO JUDGMENT HERE, Only LOVE.

WHAT TO PACK

Bring photos of your Angels, including at least 1 - 8X10 or larger photo as they will be on display after our very first group picture taken on Wednesday afternoon. They will be on display for the remainder of the retreat. You will take this photo back home with you. I also need you to bring me a clear 8x10 photo of your angel or you and your angel for our alumni wall, this photo is for me to keep, and you will not get it back. Thank you for that. You may bring anything you like to share with us about your angel, anything that makes you feel good, proud or happy to share, please do so. I believe our Angels will be around us, giving us little nudges of love and hope, letting us know they are with us. I look forward to making this a part of Angel parents healing from all over our great country. There are so many of us hurting, it is such a sad and difficult thing to live with, that only we can understand.

This retreat takes us to a different level of healing and getting to know each other and our Angels on a more personal level that is outside of social media and our own private lives. Meeting face to face in this real and homey environment will give us a special, lifelong bond. Connected by the heart, we become like family and this home makes it very safe, cozy and comfortable.

The weather here in May is beautiful and can be warm. October is usually cool or even cold for some. It's Fall and it's beautiful but be prepared for colder weather. Check the weather forecast a week prior to arrival to plan your clothing appropriately.

For those who like to hike or walk in the woods, please be safe and bring appropriate clothing such as boots, a hat and long sleeves. The woods are clear and beautiful, but they are still woods and safety from ticks and other insects is needed. We do have DEET but please use common sense. There are wooden stairs that lead down to a creek and the lake.
